DAY 2: SIEM REAP

After breakfast.

This morning you will leave for the ancient city of Angkor Thom, The last capital of the Khmer Empire under Jayavarman VII. This city is surrounded by an 8 m high wall, forming a perfect square. Enter the city through the South Gate, a monumental stone door decorated with four immense faces and a three-headed elephant. Past this gate, on each side of the alley, there is a row of 54 giants, gods or demons holding Naga, the sacred serpent.

From there, continue to the Bayon Temple, exact center of the city of Angkor Thom. This 12th-century masterpiece is very famous for its 54 face towers representing the 54 provinces of the great Khmer Empire. The Terrace of the Elephants and the Terrace of the Leper King are also essential for their complex bas-reliefs

The Ta Prohm is a temple that is part of Angkor, it is the most important archaeological site in Cambodia, because, unlike most other temples, it has remained in the same condition as when it was found. Also the atmosphere created by the combination of trees growing on the ruins and the surrounding jungle, have made it one of the most popular temples of Angkor.

Lunch.

Afternoon stroll to the magnificent Angkor Wat temple. Angkor Wat combines two basics of Khmer temple architecture: the mountain temple side and the gallery temple side. It was designed to represent Mount Meru, the home of the gods in Hindu mythology. Inside the temple, the walls are covered with stone carvings and bas-reliefs depicting Hindu mythology and the wars fought by Suryavarman II during his reign. Angkor Wat is also famous for the Apsara dancers (over 2,000) decorating it. Construction is said to have taken about 30 years of intensive work. Today, Angkor Wat appears on the national flag of Cambodia as a symbol of the soul of the Khmer people..

DAY 3: SIEM REAP

Breakfast at the hotel

This morning, visits from Banteay Srei, Located about 18 km from the Angkor Wat Temple. Considered by many to be the jewel of classical Khmer art, this site is not very large and has been wonderfully preserved. The sculptures of its bas-reliefs are certainly the most successful in Angkor. Dating from the end of the 10th century, this Hindu temple is dedicated to Shiva. This quadrangle has entrances on the east and west sides. The three central towers are interesting for more than one reason. They are decorated with male and female deities and beautiful filigree bas-reliefs.

Visit Satcha An article of the Khmer Times presented the roots of Cambodian crafts. "The handicraft industry is one of the main pillars of Khmer identity and a selling point for the destination as an intangible tourist landmark. That is why it must be preserved. Satcha Workshops, located in Siem Reap, is dedicated to maintaining the high artistic standards and the craftsmanship of its artists and craftsmen."

Lunch at the restaurant.

In the afternoon, visit a floating village on the Tonlé Sap, allowing us to understand the daily life of its inhabitants living to the rhythm of the lake, the green lung of Cambodia. The Tonlé Sap, whose name means "great freshwater river" in Khmer, is the largest freshwater reservoir in all of Southeast Asia, about ten kilometers from the town of Siem Reap.

Then back to Psa Chas for shopping.

DAY 5: BATTAMBANG – KAMPONG CHAM

Breakfast at the hotel.

Transfer to Kampong Cham city.

On the way we will stop at Spean Praptos, also known as Kampong Kdei Bridge. It was the longest paved stone arch bridge in the world, with over twenty narrow arches spanning 87 m (285 ft). The bridge was built in the 12th century during the reign of King Jayavarman VII. It is one of the few bridges from the Khmer Empire era to have survived to the present day..

Then, head to the city of Kampong Cham, crossing the Chamka Leu region which looks like a large forest with silk farms and rubber plantations.

After lunch at a local restaurant, take an excursion to Phnom Pros Srei which translates to Man Hill and Women Hill respectively. The common legend told about these hills is that two teams (one of men and one of women) were competing to build the highest mountain before sunrise.

The last stop is to visit Nokor Bachey Temple which is the first long building in Kampong Cham measures 421 meters and 371 meters in laterite dimension.

DAY 8: PHNOM PENH

Breakfast at the hotel.

At 8:00 a.m., meet at Independence Monument, Modeled after the central tower of Angkor Wat, the Independence Monument was built in 1958 to commemorate the country's independence from France in 1953. It also serves as a memorial to Cambodia's war dead. Wreaths are laid here on public holidays..

Continue to Wat Lanka, One of the oldest pagodas in Phnom Penh. It was established as a sanctuary for sacred writings and a meeting place for Cambodian and Sri Lankan monks..

Then Boeung Keng Kang market, A popular market among young Cambodians looking for affordable fashion items, you can also find many stalls selling vintage clothing, shoes, and bags from other parts of Asia.

Continue towards the Russian market (so called because a large number of Russian expats shopped here in the 1980s) is a great experience and the best place in town for wood and stone carvings, jewelry, clothing and Cambodian silk souvenirs.

We let's have lunch then to a local restaurant for Khmer specialties.

In the afternoon, you will have an overview of Cambodia's dark recent history in Tuol Sleng Genocide Museum - a former school converted into a detention center during the Khmer Rouge. The fields of the death of Choeung Ek are equally heartbreaking. These are difficult but important visits to discover the country's history.

DAY 11: SIHANOUKVILLE – KOH RONG

Breakfast at the hotel

Visit Kbal Chhay waterfall is a set of cascading waterfalls not far from the resort town of Sihanoukville in the southwestern Cambodian province of Sihanoukville. The falls are a popular swimming and picnic spot for locals and tourists and are best viewed during the rainy season from July to October. There are several tiers at Kbal Chhay Waterfall, and you can walk across the top tier as well as swim at the bottom. They get a bit busy on weekends, so they are best visited during the week. If you are here during the dry season, don't expect anything more than a cascading waterfall. The falls originate from a nearby mountain range and cascade down tiers that can reach about 15 feet. You can hang out at the picnic area in the main part of Kbal Chhay Waterfall, where the food and drink stalls are located, or head deeper to see more impressive cascades. Additionally, you can also spend time hiking in the area, as the falls are located in the middle of a beautiful country dotted with forests and streams..
