Breakfast at the hotel.

Visit by public transport to:

Rikugien Garden or Kaiyuu Pond Garden, is a traditional Japanese park, it is one of the most popular tourist destinations in Tokyo, the name Rikugien is taken from the "six elements of Waka's poems" which were derived from "six patterns of poems" written in the old Chinese book of poetry "Mao-shi" from which the name garden of the six poems comes. Rikugien Garden is one of the most beautiful and oldest gardens in Tokyo, it was considered one of the most splendid gardens of the Edo period (the other being Koshikawa Koraku-en) since it contains some trees dating back to the Edo period. Rikugien Park is an important aspect of Japanese art, surrounded by fantastic islands and a large number of trees with many hills the most famous are those of the central island (Imoyama and Seyama).

The Tokyo National Museum is the oldest museum in Japan. Its history began in 1872, with the first exhibition held at Yushima Seido's Taiseiden. Its mission is to collect, conserve, repair, manage, exhibit, study and publicize the cultural, artistic and archaeological heritage of Japan and the Orient. With 120,000 works (including 89 National Treasures and 649 Important Cultural Properties, as of the end of April 2023), the collections of the Tokyo National Museum are the largest in Japan, both in quantity and quality. The permanent exhibition contains approximately 3,000 works.

Sensoji Temple in Asakusa is known to tourists for its Senso-ji Buddhist temple, dedicated to the bodhisattva goddess Kannon. The temple with its four-story pagoda is located at the end of a large shopping street: Nakamise-dori.

Yanaka Ginza : an old-fashioned shopping street where you can stop to buy some snacks or traditional treats.
